Dress skin with the very best that luxury body care has to offer. We recommend Augustinus Bader's smoothing, The Body Cream, at 140.

When it's all about the lines – yes, Missoni's unmistakable zigzags – but also an ultra clean silhouette.

It's 11am on a Friday and I'm standing nude in a Mayfair hotel suite as Amanda Harrington, body painter turned tanner to the A-list (Dua Lipa, Blake Lively, Jennifer Aniston), looks on. In the past hour, she has prepped and buffed my body, then brushed on (not sprayed) my sunless tan. My skin is now a delicious deep golden brown, as if I've been doused in liquid bronzer – yet I look totally natural.

The process began a week earlier, with my pre-tanning instructions from Harrington: get rid of unwanted body hair, exfoliate the night before, remove any body lotion and deodorant. As I disrobed on the day, I felt awkward and self-conscious; by the end of the treatment, I was transformed into a body-positive narcissist. Harrington has seen it all before. "It is the 'peacock effect'," she says, smiling. "When
