22 SECONDS

During a nationally televised college football game, the camera scanned the crowd and landed on a beautiful unsuspecting woman named Katherine Webb. Sportscaster Brent Musburger made some offhanded, some say controversial, comments centered on her looks—and the clip went viral. The former Miss Alabama, whose boyfriend, A.J. McCarron, was quarterbacking that game, became an overnight internet sensation. She went on to appear in the 2013 Sports Illustrated Swimwear issue, and is now on ABC's 'Splash,' the high-diving competition starring celebs like Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Louie Anderson, and Kendra Wilkinson. If Andy Warhol's well-known adage about fame holds, Katherine has exactly 14 minutes and 38 second of it left. —Stephen Christopher
